

VORARLBERGER LANDES
KONSERVATORIUM

Vorarlberger Landeskonservatorium GmbH is currently looking for a

Professor of Music Education

for a full-time position starting 1 October 2022 at the Stella Vorarlberg Privathochschule für Musik in Feldkirch, Austria, which is currently in the process of becoming an accredited HEI of music.

The successful applicant will teach and research in the field of Music Education and will meet the following requirements:

- university degree and doctorate in the field of Music Education
- habilitation, a post-doctoral qualification or equivalent experience
- several years' experience of teaching and research in Music Education in an HEI setting
- relevant international publications in the field of Music Education
- experience in obtaining external funding
- a rich network of research partnerships

The requirements for this position will be assessed based on teaching activities on Music Education courses, relevant research activities on learning processes in the teaching and learning contexts of instrumental and vocal education and obtaining associated external funding, involvement in the design and development of courses of study, research activities and working groups, and collaboration in academic self-administration. The successful applicant will be willing and able to collaborate on building the profile of the HEI through interdisciplinary thinking and action.

With this professorship, we are offering applicants the opportunity to help shape a young HEI of music in the culturally and economically attractive Lake Constance region. A positive, internationally-minded collegial environment and a special atmosphere promise excellent working conditions.

Please enclose the following with your application:

- CV which takes into account activities in the fields of teaching and research
- documents verifying relevant degrees or equivalent qualifications
- list of publications

As part of our range of initiatives to establish a balance between male and female colleagues at the future Stella Vorarlberg Privathochschule für Musik, applications from women are particularly welcome.

We are unable to reimburse any costs associated with applying to the Vorarlberger Landeskonservatorium.

Please submit your application, preferably by e-mail, by no later than 20 January 2022 to:
