

With effect from September 1st 2023 we are looking for a new colleague:

Main subject teacher drums jazz (0,2 - 0,35 FTE)

Who are we looking for?

The Jazz Department of the Conservatorium Maastricht is looking to appoint an inspiring and experienced teacher who has an established and excellent artistic career, a musician with an international reputation as a performer and teacher.

The candidate should possess teaching experience in higher music education and is regularly working with other internationally acclaimed musicians as a leader or sideman.

Aside from his/her own artistic profile he/she should have a broad background in various styles of Jazz and popular music.

We are looking for a skilled communicator across cultures and driven personality who takes initiative, ownership and thinks creatively and solution-oriented.

Excellent English skills in listening/comprehension, speaking and writing are a must as the Conservatorium is an international institution

This is part of your work

- Teach individual lessons and associated subject specific courses
- Actively recruit students
- Involvement in the further development of the educational program
- Optional education and artistic activities

Qualifications:

- Experienced (international) performer on a high professional level
- Teaching experience on a high level is preferred
- Fluency in English
- Open minded to innovation, research and entrepreneurship
- Proactive, cooperative and willing to collaborate

Conservatorium Maastricht is an international conservatoire, firmly rooted in the region, while connecting to all parts of the world. We act on the basis of collectivity, in the will to challenge each other and create together. To move and add value, in and with music. We empower the moving musician to reach their own ambitions within diverse musical fields. To touch, move and excite while doing this. We bring the best out of the students through our passion for development. Our community consisting of students, teachers and the professional field are connected. Teamwork is essential, and the best education also comes from a team effort.

We offer a study programme that prepares our students for a career in the ever changing professional field. This is achieved through one to one artistic development, active interplay, theoretical integration, professional practice experience, cross departmental activities, electives, and developing entrepreneurial and research skills. Guided by our teams, the students shape their own study path, and are guided throughout their journey becoming their version of a moving musician.

Terms and conditions of employment:

An appointment between 0,2 and 0,35 fte (depending of the number of students) for a duration of 1 year with the Stichting Zuyd Hogeschool, with the prospect of a permanent appointment.

A salary depending on academic background and professional experience, of maximum scale 11 (minimum € 3881 to maximum € 5332 bruto with a fulltime appointment) according to the CAO-HBO, the collective agreement for universities of applied sciences. A contract based on ZZP (self-employment) isn't possible.

Applications: You can apply before May 12th, 2023 by uploading your motivation letter, CV and video link(s) of most recent performances (optional) on <http://werkenbijzuyd.nl/>

Applications sent directly to the contact person or in any other way will not be processed. The job interviews will be held in week 22. A trial lesson is part of the procedure.

If needed, you can request further information from Irja Zeper, Head of Programme Jazz at Conservatorium Maastricht, under irja.zeper@zuyd.nl or telephone number +31 6 28343636.
