

AEC's position on U-Multirank

AEC supports the establishment of a field-based ranking system in music within U-Multirank after carrying out collaborative work on indicators during 2014-2016. It is up to the individual institution to decide on whether the institution will participate or not. AEC will facilitate the participation of its members and provide necessary information about the process.