

IRC2018 - BIRMINGHAM - BREAKING GROUP 6

September, the 15th - 11h

ETHICAL DILEMAS - CRITICAL SITUATIONS	Does your institution have an action plan for the situation?		Who makes mapping and responsibility for collecting information at your institution?		Who has the main responsibility when a serious situation arises
	Yes	No	Is there a crisis plan?	If no, what is needed in such a crisis plan	Role of IRC
1.- Terrorist attack	Only a few institutions do have a action plan	Most of the present institutions do not have any written plan, acting either by intuition or following their commun sense for each situation	Only a few institutions do have a crisis plan	1. Setting up comun procedures of communicating to the concerned people, like relatives, home/host coordinators, etc.	1. NOT DEFINED. 2. There is a lack of specialized professional services in our institutions. 3. Personal intuitive actions can endanger the IRC's with liability consequences.
3. Natural Catastrophe				2. Reflect prevention mesures as registering in respective foreign offices, etc.
2. Sexual orientation, Feminism or Religion conflict				3. Clarify the IRC's role in such a circumstances.
4.- Decision of committing suicide				4. To inform students before leaving about how to act.
CONCLUSIONS	1. We would like AEC design a comun action plan regarding critical situations, which should be approved by board of all AEC members.
	2. Provide practical workshop to the IRC's in future meetings, with specialized trainers about how to face such circumstances.
